

Hot-wire above blunt 7-deg cone in BAM6QT, Shann Rufer, April 2004. Wire, not visible, is between tips of needles extending forward from the base of the vertical strut. Plexiglas window was removed so the image could be acquired without distortion. Hot-wire probe design adapted from design used at JPL, thanks to input from Jim Kendall.

hot wire